Only a Few Days Left to Submit a Nomination to Become National RTAP's New Board Member
National RTAP is soliciting nominations to fill one open position on the Review Board for a state transit official. All 5311 state program or RTAP managers are eligible to be nominated, or may nominate themselves. Anyone involved in rural transit is encouraged to nominate representatives to the National RTAP Review Board. Click here for the nomination form.

Register Now for National RTAP's Webinar, How to Measure and Report Your Impacts
Join host John Martin on Thursday, September 9th at 1:00 EST as he shares how rural transit providers can measure and report their impact and why this is important to their long-term survival and growth. John will share case studies of what works and show step by step how a rural transit provider can implement proven methodologies to build and package a compelling story. Click here to register.

NCST is Offering a Three-part Series on Travel Training
Participants will gain a better understanding of the different types of travel training services and be able to identify potential partners and funding sources. The audio conferences are from 12:00 to 2:00 EST on September 28th, 29th and 30th. Click here to learn more.

Make Plans for the National Rural Public and Intercity Bus Transportation Conference
TRB is sponsoring the 19th National Rural Public and Intercity Bus Transportation Conference on October 24-27, 2010, in Burlington, Vermont. This conference is designed to address key rural public and intercity bus transportation themes. For more information, please click here.

Become a Peer & Recruit a Peer
The National RTAP Peer-to-Peer Program is a free national network of transit professionals who work to promote the success of rural transit by linking knowledgeable professionals together to provide each other with problem-solving support. Click here to get started!

A program of the Federal Transit Administration administered by Neponset Valley TMA